When something fits, we move fast, and I walk you through every step so nothing catches you off guard. No pressure and no spam, just real help when you want it. Whenever you're ready, grab a time on my calendar and let's talk.”

How I sell homes for top dollar [\[CREATE\]](#)

HeyGen or self-record · used in: Seller D5

“Hey, it's Graeham. Quick one on how I get sellers top dollar. It comes down to three things: pricing it right from day one, making the home look its best before it goes live, and marketing it where serious buyers actually are. Done right, that's what creates competition and pushes the price up. If you want to see what that would look like for your place, grab a time on my calendar.”
